

PRIVACY NOTICE – V2 FINANCIAL GROUP

In order to provide you with investment advice, we (V2 Financial Group) may need to collect confidential Non-public Personal Information (“NPI”) about you. Sources for such information include:

- 1) Information provided by you on an application (or other forms) provided by you to V2 Financial Group
- 2) Information from your transactions with V2 or its affiliates
- 3) Conversations between V2’s representatives and yourself

This information may include (but is not limited to) your date of birth, financial account numbers and balances and sources and amounts of income.

We restrict access to confidential personal information about you to only those employees who need the information to prepare and deliver investment advice to you. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards to comply with federal standards to guard your confidential personal information.

V2 Financial Group does not disclose and does not retain the right to disclose any confidential Non-public Personal Information (“NPI”) about our customers or former customers to anyone, except as permitted by law. If a client desires to close the client’s account(s) with V2 or becomes an inactive client, V2 will continue to adhere to its privacy policy and practices with respect to that client as described in this notice.